Dear Emma,

Ho ho ho! Greetings from the North Pole, where the snow is deep, the cocoa is hot, and the workshop is busier than I have ever seen it.

Mrs. Claus and I have been reading the reports from my Scout Elves, and one story made us both smile. I heard that you helped your little brother Leo learn to tie his shoes. That was a truly kind thing to do, and it made my heart as warm as a mug of cocoa.

I see you are 6 years old now. My, how you have grown! I also know you have been working on eating your vegetables without a fuss. Keep at it, Emma. I believe in you! Please give Biscuit a scratch behind the ears from me.

You asked for a sparkly purple bike with a bell. The elves have written it down in the big book, and Rudolph has already practiced the route to Austin, Texas.

Remember to go to sleep early on Christmas Eve. I can only visit once everyone is dreaming!

With love and lots of snow,

Santa Claus

P.S. Emma, you are officially on the Nice List. I checked it twice!
